Accommodation

In the old town of Deventer Hotel Royal offers a great deal for Dutch Open players. The price for a double room including breakfast and free parking comes down to €65 for two persons. Deventer is only a 15min ride from the course. For more information and reservation see <http://www.royal-deventer.nl/>. Add 'Dutch Open' to the comments to make sure you pay the right price.

In addition there is also a camping site next to the course and there will probably be a few Dutch players that are more than happy to house an international player.
